Mentetter's Bitters on the Battle-Field.

It is satisfactory to know that our field hospitals are no longer unsupplied with this life-saving preneration. Soldiers who, as private sitisens, had become sequainted with its proporties, have in many restauces made a special request that HOSTETTE 'S STOMACH HITT CR4 might be added to the medical stores of their regiments, and their wishes have not been unheeded. As a masses of sustaining wounded mes on the battle field, and of enabling troops to bearfatiguing mucches under a blasing sun, it hee been streamously recommended by distinguished medical men, and the prospect is that it will eventually supercoids all the a sufferated tinctures. liquors and dasperous Tinics that have herefore been considered medicinal scaples. The feet that a small quantity of the Bitters mixed with restor from any of the Southers or South-western rivers will proven a from affecting the bowels or the liver, should be borne in mind by Army Physicians, soldiers, and al who have occasion to visit those portions of our country. the morning. -It was dry to-day because it couldn't help it-Old Boress always comes that way

-If the fellow who lost four thousand eight hundred dollars at the Phillips House hadn't seemed so dry about it-folks would have thought he was in earnest.

-If the parched-up imagination of the Journal reeder continues to vibrate, and the demand for overcoats and bed-clothes continues-water-falls will have to retire under cover-of larger bounets than now pre-

-Talking of covers-a friend of ours last night, wrapped up cozily in his shawl, going to his couch, at a late hour, was robbed, by the elements, of his top-knot. He arose this morning, happy, without a hat, and on viewing the scene of his disaster, failed to discover his own chapeau, but found three of the kind, only black. He selected, and la again miserable.

-Merchants should not leave barrels of oil stand on the pavement in night time. Its a great forc. Special night watchmen are congregating to dry the thing up.

-Talking of dry things, market was on of 'em, this morning. The door knobs of the whisky shops were kept in a constant revolution. Every body seemed tending to moisture, and, but for the freeze, a general baptising seemed inevitable. Few "salesters" came out, and those who did, couldn't keep still. We saw a little Journalistic looking canine-yailer-dancing a pas sen on a cake of ice, for a half hour without the slightest partical of perspiration. He reminded us of a jour printer, working on the President's Message, after all the other offices in town had printed it.

-Theonly place we know that doesn' come up to our ideas of dry, is Market street. Pacific seas of bad whisky circuinte with Atlantic tempestuosity.

SUDDEN DEATH .- We are pained to re cord the sudden death of Mrs. Margaret O'Neal, which occurred this morning at the residence of her son-in-law, W. H. Rouzer Esq., on Sycamore street. We learn that while doing her accustomed morning work, she was taken suddenly ill with some disease like apoplexy, which resulted in her death in the short space of one hour and a quarter. We can bear willing testimony to the many noble qualities of the deceased, and tender our kindest symmost sad bereavement.

DON'T FAIL TO SECURE ONE-Lessner & Bro., 102 Main street, have just received five hundred more of those cavalry overcoats, and they are selling them for half of their value; also, a large lot of Government blouses, which they are selling at $3 a piece, the original cost being $7.

PARDONED.-The Cincinnati Gazette of vesterday says : "William Brown, arrested in Dayton some time since, on the charge of having in his possession and passing counterfeit Treasury notes, was during the present term of the Circuit Court, convicted and sentenced to the Penitentiary, where he now is. Since his conviction, facts have transpired of such a nature as to raise serious doubts in the mind of the judge who heard his case, and the District Attorney as to his guilt, and on their recommendation President Johnson has granted him a pardon. He is, we believe, a resident of St. Louis?

BOOTS AND SHOES-HATS AND CAPS .- J. F. Lentz & Son, 104 Main street, are now receiving a large and splendid stock of Boots and Shoes and Hats and Caps, all of the latest styles and best quality. These goods have been selected with great care expressly for this market, and persons in want of articles in this line can not full to suit themselves by calling at this house, both as regards the quality of the goods and the prices at which they are sold.

Monetary and Commercial.

Dayron, December 21, 1865. There is a considerable demand at the scular Banks for accommodation by parties from a distance principly by parties engaged in the pork-packing business, this class of paper is closely scrutinized, and none but parties of unquestionable ability to meet their engagements are favored. The out-side rates for short time paper is unchanged, and if any thing a little higher One-and-a-half and two per cent, a month is generally asked and paid. The demand sems to be principly confined to parties who are short, in meeting obligations that are maturing.
